Household Policy - Base Wording

Form Number: HO-0100

Edition Date: 01-22

Policy Line: homeowners

Effective Date: January 1, 2022

Supersedes: None - new form

ATTACHING TO AND FORMING PART OF THE POLICY SHOWN IN THE DECLARATIONS. ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED.

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This base wording sets out the general conditions and the general exclusions that apply to every household policy. Perils that need their own terms - flood, surface water and escape of water - are dealt with in Form HO-0850, and the edition of that form in force on the date of loss governs the loss.

2. THEFT AND FIRE

2.1 Theft of contents following forced entry to the described dwelling is subject to a deductible of $500 and a theft sub-limit of $5,000 for any single item or set of items.

2.2 Fire loss to the described dwelling and its contents is subject to a deductible of $500. There is no fire sub-limit.

3. GENERAL EXCLUSIONS

3.1 We do not cover loss described in the exclusion table below. Codes in the E-0 series are general exclusions and apply to every peril.

EXCLUSION TABLE 3.1 - HOUSEHOLD GENERAL EXCLUSIONS

CODE EXCLUSION AND DISPOSITION

E-01	Wear and tear, gradual deterioration, rust, rot and corrosion. Disposition: Excluded absolutely.
E-02	Loss deliberately caused by the insured or a member of the household. Disposition: Excluded absolutely.
E-03	Theft or attempted theft by a person lawfully living in the described dwelling, including a lodger or tenant. Disposition: Excluded absolutely.
E-04	Mould, fungus or wet rot not resulting from an insured peril. Disposition: Excluded absolutely.
E-05	Loss while the described dwelling has been unoccupied for more than sixty (60) consecutive days. Disposition: Excluded absolutely.
E-06	Loss caused by war, invasion, civil commotion or terrorism. Disposition: Excluded absolutely.

Note: Codes in the E-0 series are not edition dependent. Where a code in Form HO-0850 or another endorsement addresses the same loss, the endorsement edition in force on the date of loss controls to the extent of the inconsistency.

4. POLICY LIMIT

4.1 The most we will pay for all loss to the described dwelling in any one policy year is the buildings sum insured shown in the declarations (the policy limit). A deductible or a sub-limit does not reduce the policy limit and is not a substitute for it.
